Cloisterette

Ephrata High School

Ephrata, Pennsylvania

Foreword

"The stars above us govern our conditions." — William Shakespeare

Although we do not all believe in astrology, we were all born under certain stars. Perhaps our days at Ephrata High School have been guided by the stars. For this reason we have chosen "The Stars and the Zodiac" as our theme. Now that we are ready to graduate we hope to catch a star of success which will lead us to a happy future.

So now with great pleasure and pride, we, the class of '59, present to you this 1959 Cloisterette.

Sail, sail, thou mighty ship
Which lands on shores anew,
Bringing people young and old
To a land of freedom true.

Among those who came to our land
Was a lass so fervent and fine.
She came to spend a year with us —
A friend of yours and mine.

With an eager spirit and desire to learn
She's impressed us through the year;
We've learned to know her very well
We'll hold her fond mem'ry most dear.

Dedication

We, the class of 1959, wish to dedicate this yearbook to our German exchange student, Barbara Kruse. Having joined us in our senior year, Barbara has taught us much about her native land, and in turn has learned much from us. We hope that she will always have pleasant memories of her days in Ephrata High School, and that she can consider this a year well spent.

Class History

In 1955 we the class of 1959, began the first step toward our goal graduation. As Freshmen we were represented in Student Council by Jeanne Wenger and Richard Wanner. The highlight of that first year was the Freshman Party held in the school gym.

When we returned the next year as Sophomores, we chose Richard Wanner, Ken Showers, Janet Hufford, and Darlene Royer as our class president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer respectively. Our Student Council representatives were Marlene Royer and Andy Miller. Marlene Royer and Janet Hufford were elected as varsity cheerleaders and automatically became our co-captains. Our school was represented at district and county orchestra by Julie Riffert. We were the first class of Ephrata High School to select our class colors and order our jackets in the Sophomore year. We chose gold and red and wrote. Another first for our class was our Sophomore Party with the theme, "April In Paris." The chairmen of various committees were Lorna Krick, Joni Spece, Merle Shreiner, and Darlene Royer.

Again we returned in the fall with hopeful expectations. Our class officers were: Dale Martin, president; Richard Wanner, vice-president; Lorna Krick, secretary; and Darlene Royer, treasurer. The focal point of our Junior year was the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme of the prom was "Strangers in Paradise," represented by a lion and a woman on a fluffy, white cloud being led through the gates of Paradise by a cherub. After the Prom we were entertained at a post-prom party given by the Soroptimist Club. Chairmen of the committees were Lorna Krick, Lucille Grimes, Leslie Doremus, and Eugene Fasnacht. And so our Junior year ended with the brighter prospect of our Senior year were yet to come.

Having reached the final step in our climb toward graduation we began our Senior year with the election of Dale Martin as our class president. Also elected were Ronald Blanck, vice-president; Elaine Benner, secretary; and Ken Showers, treasurer. We were ably represented in Student Council by Sandy Minnich, Darvin Boyd, Marlene Royer, Terry Wilhelm, Janet Hufford and Phil Eisemann.

We chose our class flower and class motto. Also we began to work on this, our yearbook.

Although for many our Senior year at E. H. S. involved much hard work, I'm sure most of us agree that this was one of the best years of our lives.

Mrs. Luella Bradley . . . Faculty Advisor

With the opening of the senior year, various clubs and activities, our Cloisterette Staff was formed with Jean Petticoffer as editor and Joanne Rupp and Ronald Blanck as associate editors. Under the editors were the following staff: Literary, Sports, Business, Typists, Artists, and Photographer.

The editors would like to thank the whole staff for their efforts and time in producing this, our 1950 Cloisterette. We also extend our thanks to the faculty for their help and cooperation.

The whole staff wishes to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Bradley for helping us with the many problems which arose. She patiently guided us as we prepared for publication, that which we hope will be one of the best Cloisterettes.

The annual Junior-Senior Prom, under the supervision of Miss Esther Weeter, was presented by the class of 1959 on Friday night, May 2, 1958. The theme, "Strangers in Paradise," was depicted by mannequins of a lady and a gentleman, in evening attire, who revolved in the center of the gym. At both ends of the gym were patios with benches, flowers, and fountains, all enclosed in low, white fences.

We danced to the music of Al Morrison's Orchestra. Refreshments consisting of cup cakes, punch, and pretzels were served.

The Soroptimist Club of Ephrata sponsored the post-prom party at the Legion ballroom.

Great Talent

The Senior High Chorus, which met every Tuesday and Thursday during the half hour period, was under the able direction of Mrs. Mildred Leisey. During the year they participated in various assembly programs. The senior members of the Chorus were Leslie Doremus, Gary Bare, Ronald Raezer, Larra Kuck, Joan Speck, Judy Donnay, Dale Martin, Roger Wenger, Donald Weaver, Judy Heister, Nick Herr, Dorothy Buch, Sam Sherk, Merle Shreiner, Kim Gerhard, Anne Detzel, Elaine Benner, Julie Riffert, Janet Hufford, Richard Bender, Karen Ranck, Dave Fassnacht, Ken Showers, Linda Martin, Phil Rhoads, Mary Royer, Ken Buch, Joyce Fry and Deborah Uhler. Representing Ephrata in County Chorus were Sharon Simpson, Janet Landa, Virginia Fry, Shirley Stafford, Lois Eichner, Leslie Doremus, Gary Bare, Ronnie Leshner, Dale Bomberger, and Dave Pierce.

The Junior High Chorus composed of seventh, eighth, and ninth grade students met every Monday and Wednesday during the half hour period, under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Leisey. This group participated in many assembly programs during the year.

In May, both the Senior and the Junior High mixed choruses presented their annual Spring Festival.

Mr. Robert Bieber . . . Instrumental Director

Mr. Robert Bieber, instrumental music director of E.H.S. has worked very hard this past year. In addition to directing Senior and Junior Concert Bands, he has worked diligently giving lessons in interpretation and giving private instrumental lessons. The Marching Band and the Sacred Choir are also results of his efforts. E.H.S. is very fortunate in having him and owes him much for his unceasing labors.

Junior Band Demonstrates Know-How

Junior band is composed of Junior High School members. The purpose of having a Junior High Band is to prepare young musicians, majorettes, and flag swingers for a better senior high band.

Under the direction of Mr. Bieber, they have done a good job marching in the Farm Show parade and at home football games.

Junior High Band, which has presented entertaining chapel programs, has certainly proven to be an efficient organization.

Featuring a well-rounded offense and a staunch defense, this year's Mounts compiled a respectable 6-4 record. The Mounts finished fifth in the Conference of Roses with a 6-3 log, which included an impressive victory over fourth place Mannheim Central, who in the previous year, had halted our undefeated streak.

The squad, often injury-riddled, showed vast improvement over last year's, and with many returning lettermen, promises even better teams in the future.

SEASON'S REVIEW

Thrills, chills, and spills — these were the trademarks of this year's E H S. Basketball Team. The team wound up in a three-way tie with Manheim Twp. and Penn Manor for third place with a 7-7 league record

Outside the league the team was 6-0, and finished with an over-all 13-7 log

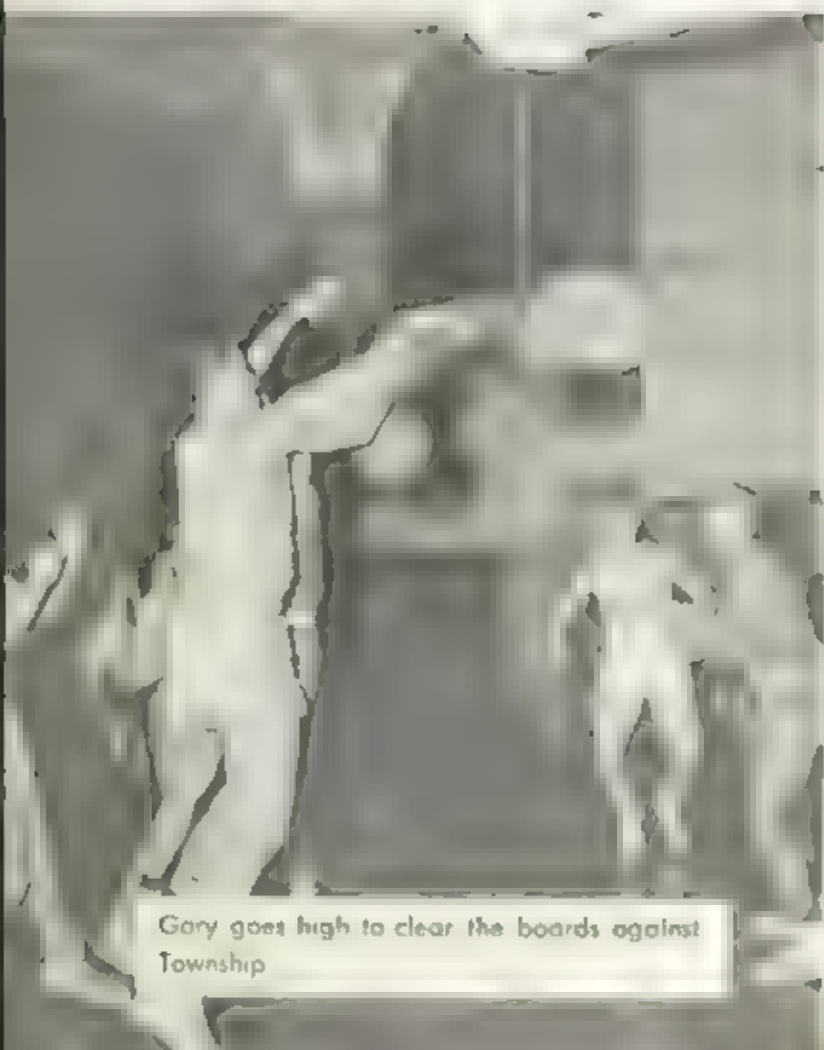

Although they had their cold moments, the Mounts always came through at the right moment, and climaxed their season with a stunning victory over Manheim

Seniors on the team were Buch, Shrom, Showers, Martin, Wilhelm, Doremus, Fassnacht, Smith and Rhoads

Farewell

It's always hard to say good-bye
To friends we know so well,
We hate to end such friendship
With only a fond farewell.

Still as time goes by, we will come to know
That this friendship was not in vain;
We have worked, learned, and shared our dreams
And we hope to share them again

For life's best moments are never lost,
And time can never remove
The times and memories that are knit
And reared in the bonds of love.
